“Developing Sport for people with a disability in Forth Valley”

Affiliated to

Forth Valley Disability Sport - “To lead the Development of Sport for people of all ages with a Disability within Forth Valley”

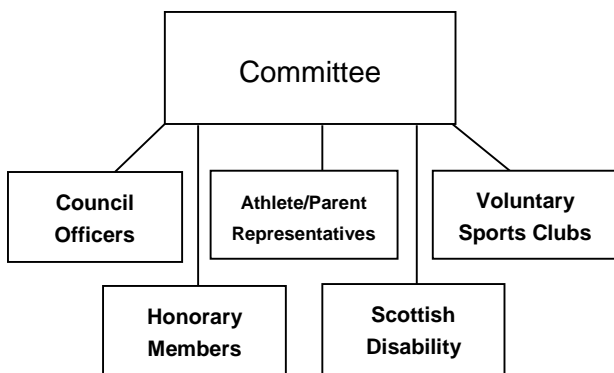

Development of Sport for People with a Disability in Forth Valley is dependant on volunteers who lead, coach and administer amateur sports clubs. In today's sporting climate, clubs need to be well organised and structured to fulfil their vital role in the area's sporting culture.

Forth Valley Disability Sport (FVDS) role in supporting clubs is a fundamental vehicle to foster the partnerships between the voluntary sector and statutory bodies involved in the provision of sport for people with a disability in the area.

Through interaction with organisation such as Sportcentral, Scottish Disability Sport, Active Stirling, Clackmannanshire, Falkirk and Stirling Councils, FVDS has the ability to distribute a whole range of information and up to date advice to affiliated members.

In their efforts to help you meet your aims, Forth Valley Disability Sport has kept committee which is made up of the following: -
